Founded in 1898, Peking University (PKU) is the first national university in Chinese modern history. Peking University now consists of five faculties: Humanities, Social Sciences, Sciences, Medicine, and Information and Engineering. The University has 47 colleges and departments, and offers 105 undergraduate programs, 291 graduate programs, and 249 doctoral programs. While still laying stress on basic sciences, the university has paid special attention to the development of applied sciences. In October 2010, there were 14,810 undergraduates, 12,082 postgraduates and 6,838 doctoral candidates. There were also on campus approximately 2,326 long-term international students from 80 countries. Among them, there were 1,836 Degree-Seeking students.

Peking University is also famous for outstanding research facilities and high qualifying teachers and researchers with extensive research interests and profound knowledge. Today the University has 5,866 full-time faculties, of whom 1,701 are professors and 2,037 are associate professors, 60 academicians of the Chinese Academy of Science, and 8 academicians of the Chinese Academy of Engineering. At present, Peking University has 11 national key laboratories, 46 state key laboratories, 2 national engineering research centers and 8 affiliated hospitals and health centers.

The Peking University library is the largest university library in Asia, with a collection of 7.7 million books, and Chinese and foreign journals and newspapers. The library also serves as a comprehensive modern information center.

Peking University places great importance on academic exchange and cooperation with foreign universities, research institutes and multinational enterprises. She has signed agreements with more than 200 universities in 50 countries and regions.

Fees

For Self-financed International Students
1. Application fee: Visiting Programs: 400RMB; Degree Programs: 800RMB;
2. Tuition:
   1) General Visiting Students Program:
      Humanities Subjects: 26,000 RMB/year;
      Science Subjects: 30,000 RMB/year;
   2) Senior Visiting Students Program:
      Humanities Subjects: 30,000 RMB/year;
      Science Subjects: 34,000 RMB/year;
   3) Research Scholar Program: 3320 RMB/month;
   4) Undergraduate Program: Humanities Subjects: 26,000 RMB/year;
      Science Subjects: 30,000 RMB/year;
   5) Master’s Program: Humanities Subjects: 29,000 RMB/year;
      Science Subjects: 33,000 RMB/year;
   6) Doctorate Program: Humanities Subjects: 32,000 RMB/year;
      Science Subjects: 40,000 RMB/year;
   7) Pre-University Program: 26,000 RMB/year; Short-Term Programs: Tuition fees vary according to the period of the courses, please contact short-term program office for more information;
3. Material fee: It refers to the actual price of the textbooks.
4. Accommodation: There are different types of housing facilities for international students at PKU.
1) Shaoyuan Guesthouse Buildings can provide dormitories for international students. For more information, please contact the office directly. Tel: 86-10-6275 2264, 86-10-62757361; Website: www.shaoyuan.com

2) For further information regarding Zhongguan Global Village at Peking University, please browse the following website: http://www.pkugv.com, or for specific advice please contact 86-10-62752288.

3) Self-funded students are required to find their own living accommodation. Please note that students who live off campus must register to the local police station.

5. Estimated cost of living (For your reference):
   Accommodation: approximately 30,000 RMB/year
   Board (meals): approximately 10,000 RMB/year
   Transportation and other miscellaneous costs: approximately 5,000 RMB/year

Requirement of Proficiency in Chinese Language

1. General Visiting Students are required to take the Chinese language proficiency exam after registration. Only those students whose results meet the standard are allowed to take specialty courses, otherwise they are suggested to study Chinese in the International College for Chinese Language Studies for one or two semesters. For those who have already received the certificate of the HSK (Hanyu shuiping kaoshi) level 6 or above, the Chinese language proficiency exam will be exempted.

2. Undergraduate applicants are not required to take the Chinese language proficiency exam, but they need to take the entrance examination. The written tests include Chinese test, Math test and English test.

Chinese-taught Master’s Program applicants and Doctorate Program applicants are required to receive the certificate of the HSK level 6 for science subjects, HSK level 9 for Department of Chinese Language and Literature and HSK level 8 for other humanity subjects.

3. Senior Visiting Students and Research Scholars are not required to take the Chinese language proficiency exam, on the premise of no communication obstacles with their supervisor.
